

Freaky Frog Research Notebook

My Freaky Frog Adaptations Research Note-catcher

(Answers, for Teacher Reference)

Research Question: How are your frog's adaptations unique? How do these adaptations help it to survive?

My freaky frog is the: AMAZON HORNED FROG

Sources: "The Amazon Horned Frog," Everything You Need to Know... pages 20–21

My Freaky Frog's Adaptations
Facts and Details	Facts and Details	Elaboration
What is the frog?	What is the adaptation?	How does this help the frog survive?
Amazon horned frog	tan females, green males	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> makes it easier for the females to hide from predators males look like leaves in the rain forest
Amazon horned frog	has big mouths and sharp teeth	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> swallows prey whole only takes one big gulp to eat its prey eats anything smaller than itself
Amazon horned frog	has horns above its eyes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> horns look like leaf stems, which makes it hard for prey to see it
Amazon horned frog	ambushes prey	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> hides under leaves and waits for prey springs out and catches the prey by surprise