

"Treasure of Lemon Brown" - Split-page Notes

| Questions                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Notes                                           |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Lemon Brown reveals to Greg the treasure that was hidden under his rags. What was Lemon Brown's treasure? Why is it significant to him?                                                                     | <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> |
| 2. Lemon Brown tells Greg, "If you know your pappy did something, you know you can do something too." What does Lemon Brown mean by this? Why is this significant to Greg?                                     | <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> |
| 3. At the end of the text, Greg asks Lemon Brown if he thought his treasure was worth fighting for "against a pipe." How did Lemon Brown respond to this question? What does he mean through this explanation? | <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> |

Write a 1-2 paragraph summary of "The Treasure of Lemon Brown."