

Vocabulary Chart

Keep a list of words you have learned throughout the unit.

Word	Part of Speech	Context Clues from Text to help with understanding (if available)	Synonyms, Antonyms, and Similar Words (Word Family)	My Definition/Picture produce	Noun	I walked into the produce section of the Winn-Dixie grocery store. (Pg. 7)	Synonyms: food, harvest, crops	Definition: things that have been produced or grown, especially by farming; agricultural products.
concerned	Adjective	The dog leaned over him, real concerned , and licked his face. (Pg. 9)	Synonyms: worried, anxious, upset Antonyms: indifference, composed	Definition: Feelings of anxiety and worry.
trotting	verb	And that dog came trotting over to me just like he had been doing it his whole life.	Synonyms: hurry, scamper, jog Antonym: stopping	Definition: move along briskly distracted	adjective	I also told him about about the preacher and how he was a good man, even if he was too distracted with sermons and prayers and suffering people to go grocery shopping. (Pg. 14)	Synonym: preoccupied, disturbed, troubled Antonyms: unworried, attentive	Definition: unable to concentrate or focus

Word	Part of Speech	Context Clues from Text to help with understanding (if available)	Synonyms, Antonyms, and Similar Words (Word Family)	My Definition/Picture
suffering	adjective	I also told him about about the preacher and how he was a good man, even if he was too distracted with sermons and prayers and suffering people to go grocery shopping. (Pg. 14)	Synonyms: hurt, endure, ache Antonyms: affluent, comfort	Definition: To feel pain, distress, or hardship exception	noun	...I was a good, quiet kid. I was what the Friendly Corners Trailer Park manager, Mr. Alfred, called “an exception .” (Pg. 15)	Synonyms: rarity, anomaly, exemption Antonyms: standard, common, typical	Definition: An instance not conforming to a general rule or expectation specifically	adverb	... specifically , I told him not to pick any fights with Mr.s Alfred’s cats... (Pg. 15)	Synonyms: exactly, precisely, clearly Antonyms: generally, broadly	Definition: Something mentioned explicitly or in detail fluttered	verb	Then he sneezed and some papers fluttered to the floor. (Pg. 18)	Synonyms: flap, flicker, wave	Definition: To move or fall with light, irregular motion

-----------	------	---	-------------------------------	--

Word	Part of Speech	Context Clues from Text to help with understanding (if available)	Synonyms, Antonyms, and Similar Words (Word Family)	My Definition/Picture
insulted	adjective	He stood still for it, but I could tell he didn't like it. He looked insulted . (Pg. 20)	Synonyms: disrespected, mocked, humiliated Antonyms: complimented, praised, pleased	Definition: To treat with disrespect or scorn.
relieved	adjective	Winn-Dixie looked straight at me when I said that to him, like was feeling relieved to finally have somebody understand his situation. (Pg. 21)	Synonyms: glad, thankful, pleased Antonyms: distraught, worried	Definition: To no longer feeling distressed or anxious twitched	verb	Winn-Dixie twitched his ears and raised his eyebrows. (Pg. 22)	Synonyms: jiggle, flutter, jerk	Definition: A short, sudden movement muttering	verb	“Hmmm,” he said. He was working on a sermon and kind of muttering to himself. (Pg. 24)	Synonyms: whisper, murmur Antonyms: Speak clearly	Definition: To say something in a low voice

Word	Part of Speech	Context Clues from Text to help with understanding (if available)	Synonyms, Antonyms, and Similar Words (Word Family)	My Definition/Picture
nudge	verb	Winn-Dixie looked up at the preacher and kind of gave him a nudge with his nose. (Pg. 25)	Synonyms: bump, prod, tap	Definition: To lightly touch to draw attention to someone or something congregation	noun	...sometimes it looks more like the congregation is watching a parade or sitting at a barbecue instead of being at church. (Pg. 33)	Synonyms: audience, assembly	Definition: A gathering of people or things; often as churchgoers serious	adjective	One minute, everything was quiet and serious and the preacher was going on and on; and the next minute, Winn-Dixie looked like a furry bullet... (Pg. 36)	Synonyms: stern, somber Antonyms: lighthearted, humorous	Definition: Mood that is neither playful or joking applauded	verb	And everybody started laughing and clapping. The preacher picked up the mouse by the tail and walked and threw it out the front door of the Pick-It-Quick, and everybody applauded again. (Pg. 38)	Synonyms: clap, ovation Antonym: boo	Definition: To show approval by clapping

Word	Part of Speech	Context Clues from Text to help with understanding (if available)	Synonyms, Antonyms, and Similar Words (Word Family)	My Definition/Picture
------	----------------	---	---	-----------------------

lonely		So I told God that I was lonely, even having Winn-Dixie (Pg. 39)	Synonyms: empty, alone, forlorn Antonyms: befriended, loved, popular	Definition: Feeling of sadness due to having no friends or companions.
scornfully	adverb	"Cricketer," she said scornfully. "What do we need with a cricketer?"	Synonyms: snide, continuous Antonyms: gracious, polite	Definition: something done without respect, or something done showing displeasure resigned	adjective	There was something resigned, but nice about Papa.	Synonyms: gentle, calm Antonyms: agitated, rough	Definition: having accepted something unpleasant that you can't change