

Homework: Prepositional Phrases II

(Answers, for Teacher Reference)

Directions: Remember what you have learned about prepositional phrases.

Prepositional phrases: a group of words that describes the relationship between a noun or verb and another noun following the preposition

Prepositional phrases answer questions like which one, what kind, how, when, where.

Common Prepositions

above, across, after, against, along, among, around, as, at, before, behind, below, beneath, beside, between, beyond, by, down, during, for, from, in, into, like, near, of, off, on, onto, opposite, out, over, past, since, to, toward, through, under, underneath, until, with, within Revise these sentences so they correctly use the prepositions. Think about the relationship between the noun or verb and what comes after the preposition, and the word that signals that relationship. Does it sound right? Does it make sense?

Sentence	Revised Sentence
The British ships have been in the harbor since two weeks.	The British ships have been in the harbor for two weeks.
Mr. Lawson bought tea to the Bartons' store.	Mr. Lawson bought tea at the Bartons' store.

Write a sentence using the following prepositional phrase:

between the Patriots

Responses will vary.

Write a sentence using the following prepositional phrase:

with the Loyalists

Responses will vary.